

JUSTIN GREGOIRE

I am a data strategist with a strong foundation in data analytics, statistical modeling, and business intelligence. My experience spans across various industries, where I've worked closely in cross-functional environments with Product, Engineering, GoToMarket, Sales, and Finance teams to leverage data for strategic initiatives. Proficient in interpreting SaaS metrics like conversion, churn, MRR, and ARR, I excel at transforming complex data into actionable strategies. With a keen eye for developing and implementing data platforms, I'm looking forward to bringing my skills to a high-growth company where I can contribute to shaping data strategy.
